Reports of Committees:

Christmas charity committee report (Mel, Jim, Bob):

This years' charity will be decided at the December meeting after our expenses have been accounted for so we'll know how much we can give. Also we'll decide which charity. Jim brought information on Brevard Group Treatment Home (Boys Next Door and Girls Down the Street) facilities. Maxie would like to know what happens to the kids when they leave at 16.

Clyde brought information about Operation Helping Hand which helps wounded veterans.

Christmas Party: Jim is working with caterers and will decide. Mel said we'll do as last year. 2 unwrapped gifts. One girl, one boy. Also 2 unwrapped gifts that we'll sell raffle tickets for. We'll also sent invitations to past members and they will pay for their own dinners.

Dottie made a motion to buy 10 wreaths for Wreaths across America. Mary Sue will send them a check for $150.

Discussion of turkey giving and it was decided that each person would donate on their own.

Wagonmaster:

Next campout will be at Camelot in Malabar. Right now 10 rigs are planning to attend - we may have 11.

There are 9 rigs at Eustis.

Sunshine: Bob Rench home and happy.

Charity: Jim will take any canned goods you have.

Activities: Ugly sweater contest will be 1pm Saturday

Donna will be new activities person (reluctantly)

President Bobs' meeting with State Officers:

Dogs for the Deaf and Florida Guide dogs. Good Sam's of Florida supports them now but there are issues with Florida guide dogs. Being looked into.

Eustis Rally had 409 rigs on site. Florida has 10,900 Good Sam members. 900 belong to chapters.

Upcoming Campouts:

- January 7-9, Grand Lakes, Citra
- February 4-6, Blueberry Hill, Bushnell
- March 3-5, Sherwood Forest, Kissimmee
- April – Spring Rally in Okeechobee
- May 5-7, Olde Mill Stream, Umatilla

Adjournment: Motion made and accepted to adjourn at 345p.

Respectfully Submitted,

Donna Boutilier
Acting Secretary
